A partner in the firm and chair of the firm's Family Law Practice Group, Andrew represents business owners, farmers, professionals and individuals throughout southern Minnesota in a wide range of family law matters, including complex and high net worth divorces.

Andrew enjoys solving complex and difficult issues and guiding his clients through, what for many, is the most emotional and difficult time of their lives. In addition to representing his clients, Andrew is a frequent lecturer on complex family law issues to both local and national audiences.

Clients with significant assets or a business appreciate Andrew's experience representing businesses and business owners and his knowledge of farm, real estate, business valuation, accounting, and finance principles. Andrew also represents unmarried individuals in custody and parenting time matters, as well as those entering into cohabitation agreements to protect assets and income.

Andrew understands clients' concerns about the cost of legal services and utilizes his experienced staff and other attorneys in the firm to ensure that financial resources are used efficiently and appropriately.
