Never one for off-the-shelf legal fixes, Dan Beckman has a knack for fitting the solution to each client's unique situation. His skill in finding appropriate, cost-effective and timely resolutions to a wide range of legal problems makes him an adept and versatile attorney.

Dan represents a variety of individuals, businesses, banks, insurers, commercial property owners and managers. His work for these clients includes litigation, real estate, licensing and leasing, shareholder issues, non-competition, non-solicitation, non-circumvention agreements and estate and succession planning and collections.
