

Jennifer G. Lurken

jlurken@gislason.com • 507-387-1115

Jennifer's extensive legal expertise provides large and small businesses, agricultural producers, banks and individuals with effective outcomes. As an experienced litigator with an emphasis on bankruptcy, banking, civil litigation and employment law, Jennifer helps clients navigate the complex and confusing process when they are sued or when they need to assert their rights against another.

A seasoned professional in all aspects of bankruptcy and debtor-creditor rights, Jennifer handles complex and sophisticated matters on behalf of clients. Jennifer assists individual and business creditors attempting to collect through the bankruptcy process. Jennifer has served on the panel of Chapter 7 trustees and has acted as a receiver. As a trustee and receiver, Jennifer is the representative for the recovery, preservation, liquidation and distribution of estate and receivership assets and the fiduciary responsible to various parties in interest in a case.

Jennifer strives to understand the needs of each client and to provide counsel in a manner that will help to simultaneously achieve both business and professional objectives.

Outside the office, Jennifer enjoys biking, swimming, cooking and spending time with her husband and two children.
