For more than 35 years, Mark Samuel Ullery has provided legal services in Southern Minnesota. He has acquired decades worth of knowledge and experience in his areas of practice: agriculture law and agribusiness, finance and banking, insurance, labor and employment and litigation. Ullery provides his clients with exceptional legal representation in a wide range of matters, including civil litigation, personal injury, wrongful death, construction law, insurance law, agricultural law and commercial disputes.

Over the years, Ullery has been very active in the community and is currently a member of the Minnesota State Bar Association, the District Nine Bar Association and the Minnesota Defense Lawyers Association.

Ullery is originally from the Southwest Minnesota community of Slayton. He and his wife reside in New Ulm and have two children. In his free time, Ullery enjoys outdoor activities and spending time with his family.
